

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Open University

Term End Examination January – 2026

Course : BSCCS
Subject Code : BSCCS-107
Subject Name : Environmental Studies I

Date : 21/02/2026
Time : 11:30am to 12:30pm
Duration : 1 Hour
Max. Marks : 35

Section A

Answer the following (Attempt any two)

(20)

1. Examine the various Methodologies used for Environmental Education.
2. What are the Psychological perspectives of Humanity and the Environment?
3. What are the main factors that contribute to Environmental degradation, and why is it a concern?
4. Discuss the Environmental Education Programs across various educational tiers.

Section B

Answer the following (Attempt any two)

(10)

1. Formal and Informal Environmental Education Programs
2. The Contribution of the Individual and Society to Environmental Conservation
3. Legislative measures for the conservation and Safeguarding of the Environment
4. Global Environmental Organisations

Section C

Part – A (Multiple Choice Questions)

(05)

1. Which of the following is a Feature of formal Environmental education?
a) Conducted in schools and universities b) Unstructured and lifelong
c) Happens outside educational institutions d) Based on daily life experiences
2. An example of a Non-formal environmental education activity is:
a) Attending a university degree course in ecology
b) Participating in a community tree-planting workshop
c) Reading environmental news for fun
d) Learning about recycling at work
3. What is a Fundamental responsibility of individuals for environmental conservation?
a) Ignoring local environmental rules b) Practicing and promoting sustainable habits
c) Delegating all tasks to government d) Only recycling when convenient 4. Society can contribute to Environmental conservation by:
a) Opposing all forms of development
b) Promoting environmental awareness and collective responsibility
c) Relying solely on technological fixes
d) Focusing only on personal gain
5. The Environment Protection Act in India was enacted in:
a) 1972 b) 1986 c) 1992 d) 2000
