1. DAA PROGRAMME OBJECTIVES

From villages to small towns to big cities or from Desinama to Double entry to Tally accounting, accounting activities are carried on all over the world. Accounting is not a new concept here in India. Accounting can be treated as a basic activity in commerce field. Accounts are prepared mainly to know the results of transactions of specific periods. All other activities of determination of finance or determination of tax rely upon accounting results.

For accounting knowledge B.com and M.com courses are available and it is also true that by doing such courses a person may get enough knowledge. But in this competitive field where accounting is not limited to double entry system, such kind of course will add professional attitude in accounting to compete with others and even to get promotion. This course will cover wide gamut of concepts, which is not normally embodied within the courses of B.com and M.com so a student doing such type of course along with his graduation will equip himself in this competitive world.

Moreover accounting is not only limited to urban area so a person in rural area who has done such type of course can generate business opportunities specially in a situation when people in rural area sifting their way of accounting from Desinama to computerized way.

9. STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

In order to provide individualized support to its learners, the University has created a number of Study Centres throughout the State for this Programme. These are administratively coordinated by the Regional Centres. The Study Centres are the contact points for the students on all major aspects of the Programme. These include counselling sessions, practicals, reference library facilities, disseminating information and advice, facilities for audio-visual training aids and teleconferencing.

The University may not always be able to communicate to all the students individually. All the important communications are sent to the Regional Directors who in turn will intimate them to the Study Centre Coordinators. The coordinators display such circulars / notifications on their notice boards for the benefit of the students. You are, therefore, advised to be in touch with your Study Centre Coordinator on a more regular basis so as to get the latest information about assignments, submission schedules (assignments and examination forms), declaration of results, etc.

Various techniques are also used to benefit the learners which are as follows:

- Self-Learning Material

The printed significance: Material for theory as well as the practical components of the programme is supplied to the learners, which comes in the form of a 4 blocks which is comprises of 3 to 5 units.

- Audio-Visual Material Aids

We record video lectures and provide to our learners through Swadhyay TV (video lecture through web portal)VANDE Gujarat Educational channel 16 of Govt.of Gujarat. The university follows a multi-media approach for instruction.

- Counselling Sessions

Counselling Sessions are held as per the schedule drawn beforehand by the Learner Support Centre/Study Center Coordinator. They are mainly held on Saturdays, Sundays and on public holidays.

- Contact Programme

In order to solve learners query, we provide face-to-face interactions of learners with the members of the Councilor/faculty and other experts in the subject.

- Video conferencing

We conduct video conferencing in order to enhance the learner's skills through various activities.

10. Programme Instructional System

The methodology of instruction in this university is different from that of the conventional universities. The Open University system is more learner-oriented, and the student has to be an active participant in the teaching-learning process. Most of the instruction is imparted through a distance with only a small component of face-to-face communication. The University follows a multi-channel approach for instruction. It comprises a suitable mix of:

- Self-Learning Materials covering the entire syllabus
- Counselling sessions at study centres/ learner support centres
- Access to library services at study centres

- Access to University Library " Vivekananda"
- Official website : we have developed official website www.baou.edu.in for our learners and general public. It provides all the relevant information to the learners.
- Chaitanya Studio : University has its own state of the art HD " Chaitanya Studio" for producing high end Audio- Video programmes.
- SWADHYAY TV : Audio-Video programmes are made available online on university's official website through SWADHYAY TV.
- E-SLM : An e-learning portal named OMKAR has been launched by the university. It is digital repository where the study materials are uploaded for the learners.
- ASK- ME- Kiosk : Initiative by BAOU, it is a student friendly internet enable digital touch screen device displaying detailed information about the university free of cost.
- SMS and e- mail Alert Facility : University has initiated as SMS and e-mail alert facility for students regarding any news, events and learner- related information of the university. Programme Delivery through face to face contact programme- counselling sessions will be conducted at respective study centres on Saturdays, Sundays and on public holidays.
- Gyan Ganga, Swayam Portal, including teleconferencing, Eklavya exclusively for Technology

11. Evaluation Scheme
